

The Commander's Critique

The Subconscious Frequency

The Worldview: In what universe does the movie take place? Is there a God, or is evolution the catalyst for life? Are there aliens, magic, spirits ghosts and are they good or bad?

The Conviction: What defines Good vs Evil? Is there a Judeo-Christian, pagan or Gnostic structure to the moral distinction?

The Protagonist Alignment: Does the character align more with the biblical understanding of God or Satan? (God: Powerful, honest, just, unwavering, chaste, moral, corporately responsible, etc. Satan: selfish, untethered, a thief, a drunk, lustful, dishonest, corrupt, etc.)

The Antagonist Alignment: Does the character align more with the biblical understanding of God or Satan? God: Powerful, honest, just, unwavering, chaste, moral, corporately responsible. Satan: selfish, untethered, a thief, a drunk, lustful, dishonest, corrupt.

The Sway: Do you find yourself, more inclined to follow the biblical christian mandate, or have you been swayed into thinking or feeling, even in the most subtle of ways, against the proper order that YHWH has established?

The Spiritual Frequency

Symbols - (visual): What symbols are being used, and how are they being used? Are the symbols being used in the background or are they being directly used by one of the characters? (Investigate the meaning of prominent symbols being used).

Spells - (auditory): Are there curses being spoken or spells being casted? Are there words being spoken that you don't understand?

Practiced Spirituality: What are the religious, magic or spiritual practices that actually take place on the movie? (Remember magic is far more than what Hollywood has trained us to think).

Biblical References: Are quotes or references from Holy Scripture being used? (Most movies actually do have them). Are they quoted in or out of context? Are they Used appropriately or twisted to fit a narrative?

Biblical Violations: Most movies have moral, ethical or biblical violations in them, the question is how are they being represented? (Are the magic practitioners bad? Is murder seen as Good, etc?) When Biblical violations occur, are they condemned or exalted?
